TESTIMONIALS

Chantay is brilliant, energetic, and relentless in her pursuit of client success.

Her wealth of expertise aligned with dedication drives projects to surpass goals. She's a mastermind and true visionary! I highly recommend her services.

-Dr. Bonman Senkungu

I have found it to be a pleasure and a joy to work with Chantay Bridges. When looking to expand my brand, her expertise is what I needed. It's hard to believe someone can have so much knowledge in so many areas, but she does. After working with her a while, I now understand how she remains knowledgeable and cutting-edge; she educates herself to serve her clients better! In addition to Chantay's wealth of wisdom, she is detail-oriented, professional, and she genuinely cares about her clients! I am proud to say, Chantay comes with my highest recommendation!

- Ceola J. Author, Playwright, Motivational Speaker

I have had the opportunity to work with Chantay Bridges on 27 major television awards shows, including 16 Academy Awards®, the #1 awards show on T.V. She has been an essential part of my team that takes care of the Talent on the shows, in charge of making sure they have their scripts and are backstage at the proper time to perform or present. Whether it's Meryl Streep, Octavia Spencer, Kevin Hart, John Legend, Whoopie Goldberg, Helen Mirren, John Travolta, Jennifer Hudson or Oprah Winfrey, and tens of others, Chantay is known for taking care of Hollywood's "A-Listers". You may have seen her on the Red Carpet or backstage, and not even realized it. But those of us working the shows, know that she is there, bringing her expertise and making things work smoother.

- Michael Francis, Manager, P. Operations, 92nd Academy Awards®

"Bridges Publishing House, America's best-kept secret" Far too many times people dream, think, and imagine writing a book. In the back of their minds, they are telling themselves, one day. One day I will do it, one day I will be on a bookshelf. Yet, one day turns into months, months into years, and for some, even decades. Bridges Publishing House (BPH) is the answer and today is the day! BPH is the company for the non-average and ready to scale individuals. It's the bridge to publishing better when average just won't do. Taking that manuscript that has been buried and bringing it to life. When publishing with them, you are saying, I want better, I am ready to change the world and make an imprint that will be unforgettable. The company's mission is to provide equitable, fair, knowledgeable representation to authors who are just beginning or seasoned writers.

Chantay Bridges founded BPH in an effort to empower the voices of authors and make their dreams a reality. Whether you are traveling the world, running meetings in the board room, or trying to keep up with your children's activities, BPH is there through the entire journey, offering support until completion. BPH also provides services that streamline the writing process, making sure finding success fits your lifestyle. Unlike larger publishing houses, they provide one-on-one personal attention to each client. You will never just be a number or name on the back of a book. They know who you are, and where you want to go. If you're an author and want to make the publishing process less complicated, contact Bridges Publishing House. BPH makes publishing a book and making your desires come to past as simple as 1,2,3. No more delaying that dream that lives on the inside of you. BPH begins with the end in mind, helping you in your strive for success. "Bridges Publishing House, America's best-kept secret." BPH is higher in everything - in every area, in every way.
